High School P.T.A. Reports Meeting At School Monday

"Liberty lies in the hearts of men and women. When it dies there, no constitution, no law, no court can save it." So declared Judge Learned Hand, of the U. S. Court of Appeals in an address given in New York City, and read Monday by Mrs. L. F. Watson as the inspirational message at the regular monthly meeting of Torrance High School P.T.A.

The program for the day was arranged by Miss A. Javeas and emphasized handicrafts, outdoor activities and reading which might be developed as hobbies during the summer. Dorothy Moore told how leather can be tooled and made into useful objects. Laura Mae Sheen explained how clay is worked into pottery and other ceramics; Copper tooling as a hobby was developed by Georgina Teets. Richard Wimberley recommended the raising of vegetables as a good way to "work off steam" and at the same time produce fresh vegetables for the table and help to send much needed food to other lands.

Several books were reviewed by Mrs. Dorothy H. Jamieson, librarian at Torrance Public Library. She recommended reading as a pleasant summer pastime.

At the business meeting it was voted to give $34 to the Girls' League, the money to be used in decorating the Faculty Room of the Science Building. Gateway Council Annual Luncheon meeting was announced for June 4 in San Pedro, and the June 7 meeting of Tenth District at John Adams Junior High School.

The afternoon ended socially with tea and cookies served by Mrs. W. J. Vernon and her committee. The tea table was decorated with spring and presided over by Mrs. W. Rufus Page and Mrs. Joe H. Moore.
